

*UDO Virtual Conversation 1 – UDO General Overview
December 2, 2021 – 12:00 p.m.*

Question as Submitted in Zoom Chat	Staff Answer
Have native plants (trees, shrubs, plants) been incorporated into the landscaping plans?	Answered verbally at [20:01]
Where is the link to the 26-page reference guide online?	The reference guide can be found at https://charlotteudo.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/UDO-Reference-Guide_Final.pdf
Will changed and new terms be included in a separate “key” to help users navigate and focus on understanding them and the changes they will cause?	Answered verbally at [22:40]
Will this recording be available to share with people who are interested but couldn't attend either session?	Yes. This recording will be available on the UDO website and the CLT Planning YouTube page
Is the approved species list of plants on line?	Yes it is available online. We can send you a link after this meeting concludes.
If possible could you pls explain the difference between previous zoning development and 2040 plan. Few changes that you expecting make really difference in the development of city.	Answered verbally at [38:59]

Useful Links from the Zoom Chat

Link to the UDO reference guide	https://charlotteudo.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/UDO-Reference-Guide_Final.pdf
Link to the website for the Charlotte Future 2040 Comprehensive Plan and 2040 Policy Map	https://cltfuture2040.com/